

6th Global Conference on the Elimination of Child Labour

Palais des Congrès, Boulevard
Mohammed VI, 40000 - Marrakech

Pre-conference (online)		Tuesday 10 February		Wednesday 11 February			Thursday 12 February			Friday 13 February
8h00 - 9h00		Group Meetings (employers, workers, and governments)			Group Meetings (employers, workers, and governments)			Group Meetings (employers, workers, and governments)
9h00 - 9h15		Opening ceremony			Decent work for youth			Child labour in Africa
9h15 - 11h00	Child labour in Eastern and Southern Africa: What the data tells us and what must change (virtual)	Upscaling impact on child labour in agriculture			Stronger voices, fairer incomes, brighter futures: decent work pathways to ending child labour			Closing ceremony
11h00 - 11h15		Extending social protection coverage and transitioning to formality to combat child labour: good practices and innovative approaches			Preventing and responding to child exploitation and abuse in digital environments: From global commitments to national and sectoral action			Beyond SDG target 8.7: Political Pathways for the Next Global Target on Child Labour
11h15 - 13h00		Education and child protection as key components of an effective strategy to address child labour			Effectively tackling child labour and other decent work deficits at the initial tiers of supply chains
13h00 - 14h30		Making child labour-free trade real: Labour provisions and due diligence in supply chains (virtual)			Integrated, Multistakeholder Partnership Solutions to End Child Labour: Ghana's Experience and Lessons for Cross-Country Learning
14h30 - 16h15	Addressing the income – child labour – gender nexus in global value chains (virtual)	Child labour in the care economy (virtual)	Building more effective due diligence systems to tackle the root causes of child labour in supply chains (virtual)		Child labour in a changing world: high-level panel on emerging challenges and opportunities			CSOs Forum: From Policy to Practice: Bridging Gaps, Building Impact
16h15 - 16h30		Relationship between freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining, and the abolition of child labour and forced labour (virtual)			Sustainable financing solutions for the elimination of child labour: towards coherent and sustainable national strategies			The role of regional and interregional cooperation in ending child labour
16h30 - 18h30	Exploring the intersection between child labour, child trafficking and migration through data and research (virtual)	Key partnerships for the eradication of child labour: Prevention to eradicate – Regional vision, national commitment and local impact (virtual)		Investing in decent work – Financing the fight against child labour and forced labour (virtual)	Post-2030 child labour target setting	Designing practical strategies to bridge the income, child labour and gender equality gap	Pathways to the future: addressing the structural roots of child labour through digital innovation and integrated policies (in-person)	Good business practices for the prevention of child labour (in-person)	Alliance 8.7: 10 years of Partnership and Action (in-person)	Addressing rising risks to children in conflict-affected and fragile settings (in-person)	Transforming fisheries and aquaculture: new tools to eliminate child labour (in-person)	Entrepreneurship (in-person)	Shaping future-oriented action to end child labour in a rapidly changing world	Data innovations to assess child labour risk	Hazardous work of children and youth	Applying the Child Labour Toolkit in humanitarian contexts	Investing in change: leveraging investments and the role of international financial institutions to end child labour in agriculture	Faith, dignity and shared responsibility: Harnessing interreligious dialogue to end child labour (in-person)